

released: 14/06/10 Dennis at the Ministry of Sound. So what is sound? Sound is music. Without music, cinema would not be what it is today. Of course, cinema is not music, but it also exists thanks to music. And in this film we see the work of one of these groups. They're making a movie that doesn't have music. But the music is still there, it's the actors themselves. They can be heard, they can be understood. They are impossible to forget, impossible to part with.
